

Our guiding principles

We, the Diakonische Werk Region Kassel, see us as an important part of lived church in our area. Because of our Christian responsibility we stand for justice and participation. Therefor we always speak up for others.

We understand our diaconal work mandatory:

- We support people during special situations in life, enable participation to improve their living conditions and encourage open encounter.
- We work with different partners and network variously with parishes in neighbourhoods and other protagonists in our area.
- We participate actively in the socio-political dialogue.
- We encounter every human appreciatively.
- We are a professional social service provider and enhance our services steadily.
- We are a reliable employer and support our employees.
- We use our resources with efficiency and transparency.

Organisation

The Diakonische Werk Region Kassel is a special purpose association of the regional church of Kassel, Kaufungen and Hofgeismar-Wolfhagen. You will find us in the whole county and city of Kassel.

At our place work more than 200 full-time and over 470 voluntary employees for the benefit of the people in their area. Our services have an easy access, are often mobile and open to everyone.

For us a human is more than the total amount of individual problems.

At Diakonisches Werk Region Kassel people of the area find professional assistance in various crises and circumstances, same as encounter, exchange and the possibility to show commitment.

Our full-time or voluntary employees assist where help is needed and work to avert problems.

This is how we contribute to a harmonious coexistence in the area and strengthen self-help in the society.
